

China's National Sea Level Network

Report to the 18th Session of the Group of Experts for the Global Sea Level Observing System

1. National SL Observing Network of China

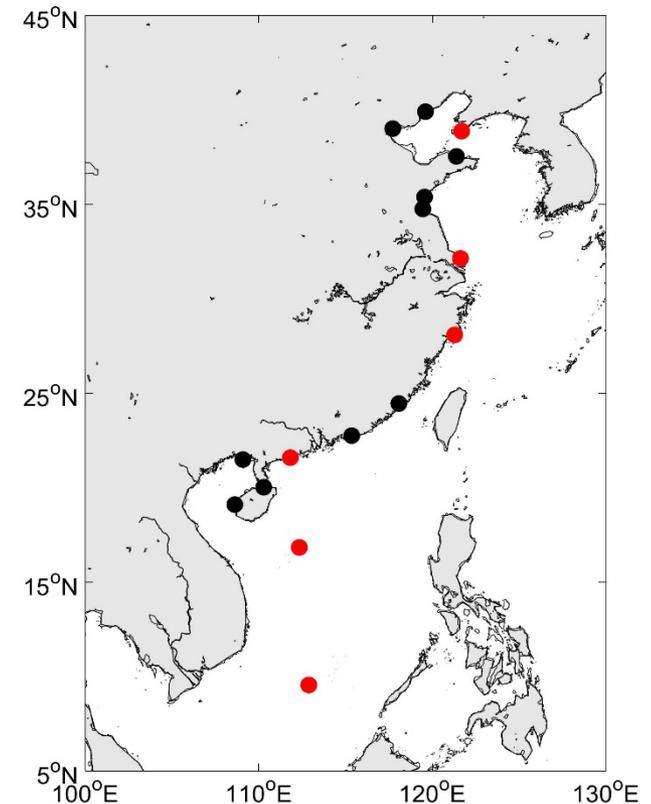

The national network of sea level observation in China is operated by National Marine Data and Information Service, Ministry of Natural Resources.

✚ Seventeen key stations and other basic stations along China's coast.

✚ Six stations have been registered in GLOSS Core Network and monthly MSL data are sent to PSMSL on time.

✚ Measure vertical land motion at most of the tide gauge locations (GNSS).

✚ Optimize the China sea level observing network

2. Sea Level Change and Projection

- The sea-level rise along the China's coast is accelerating, with the rate increasing from 3.5 mm/yr during 1980-2023 to 4.0 mm/yr during 1993-2023.

Year	China SLR/m
	SSP1-2.6	SSP2-4.5	SSP5-8.5
2050	0.21 [0.16-0.26]	0.22 [0.19-0.28]	0.24 [0.21-0.33]
2100	0.47 [0.31-0.64]	0.59 [0.47-0.80]	0.83 [0.64-1.09]

NOTE: Relative to 1995-2014

International Cooperation

- ✦ Participate in international cooperation in marine fields;
  - ✦ GLOSS, JCOMM, IODE, DBCP, NEARGOOS, ODINWESTPAC, CMOC-CHINA etc.
  - ✦ Implement EMOD-PACE&CEMDnet joint projects, collaborate with EMODnet and release Regional Assessment of Coastal Hazards Connected to Sea Level Rise.
  - ✦ OTGA (OceanTeacher Global Academy) Training Center.
  - ✦ Update China's coastal observation data and other data processed by NMDIS. The website linkage: <http://near-goos.coi.gov.cn>, <http://www.odinwestpac.org.cn> and <http://www.cmoc-china.cn>.
